

2014 EurAAP AWARD

1. AIM:

To recognise the contribution of an individual person to:

- Advances in Antennas & Propagation
- Education in the fields of Antennas & Propagation
- Coordination of research & networking activities in the fields of Antennas & Propagation in Europe or in relationship to Europe

The award consists of:

- a plaque
- life-long free registration for the “European Conference on Antennas & Propagation”
- free ticket for the 9th “European Conference on Antennas & Propagation” Conference Dinner in The Hague

2. PROCEDURE

The Award is granted every year, during the European Conference on Antennas & Propagation event. All EurAAP members can nominate candidates. They must provide a biography of the nominee, which highlights the reasons why he/she should be considered for the prize. The candidate can also get endorsements from other EurAAP members.

The recipient of the award will be selected by an Award Committee composed of 5 members: the leader of the EurAAP WG Societal Issues, who will act as Chairperson, and 4 members appointed for a three-year term by the EurAAP BoD on behalf of the EurAAP Delegates Assembly. Their deliberations will be confidential, and their decision final.

The award will be given during the European Conference on Antennas & Propagation Conference Dinner.

Nominations have to be made before December 15th, 2013. All documents and endorsements have to be provided with the nomination. The Awards Committee will inform the BoD of the final decision before February 15th, 2014.

All the documents have to be sent via email to the Chair of the Awards Committee:
